—Cowan & Ireland can be found next door to the post office.

—W. A. Johnson was down attending court again this week.

—The shoemaker, Welch, "lit out" last Wednesday night.

—Everything in the stationery line is kept by E. B. Stevenson.

—Buy drugs of E. B. Stevenson—guaranteed pure and fresh.

—We will publish a list of hotel arrivals if they are furnished.

—Fine address cards a specialty—printed cheap at this office.

—A rush of job work this week. Our new jobber does the business.

—Fruit prospects, we are informed by those who ought to know, are good.

—One of the best job presses in Southern Kansas can be seen at this office.

—Orin Lee and wife, of Fredonia, were in town attending court this week.

—When you call on Stevenson, if he "don't got 'em," he will send for it.

—The best is always the cheapest. Buy the "Anchor Flour," at FRANK'S.

—The assessors are preparing for work. The returns must be in by the 10th of May.

—A fine thunder shower Thursday night—more thunder and lightning than rain.

—S. A. Stevens has been courting at Iola this week. It was in the District Court.

—Sale bills and large posters printed cheaply at this office. Out of stock furnished.

—B. B. Brewster started for Colorado last Monday. He goes to recuperate his health.

—John H. Akers, of Lawrence, was registered at the Leland Wednesday and Thursday.

—J. L. Arnold has sold his farm and intends visiting the San Juan country this spring.

—Base ball seems to be an intermittent disease this year. Not a very serious one as yet.

—Captain DeWitt, Ex-Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town Wednesday.

—The County Commissioners will meet in regular session the second Monday in April.

—Bowling sold Mr. Arnold's farm to Mr. Hiram English, of Grundy County, Illinois, last week.

—Kansas has taken the premium on fruit in every instance where she has been a competitor.

—McElroy, W. T., of the Union, perambulated our streets last Saturday, and made us a friendly call.

—Chas. Ramsey started last Wednesday for Indiana where he proposes remaining a couple of years.

—A. G. Jones and Dr. Hart got in from a trip to Southern Kansas and the Indian Nation last Wednesday night.

—Mr. Munner will please accept our thanks for a fine piece of meat which he left for the "printers" a day or two ago.

—Probate Judge Allison has gone into the poultry and hog business. He also has an agency for an insurance company.

—A prairie fire burned over a large section of country ten or twelve miles east of Iola the latter part of last week.

—Why can't the teachers of our public schools give us the reports? Would like to hear from the rural districts as well.

—The horizon is illuminated with prairie fires almost every night. Better save the grass until spring. It may come handy.

—Married, in Iola, on the evening of the 17th inst., by Rev. H. K. Muth, Mr. Thomas Read and Miss Emily Bliss, both of Iola.

—Applicants for teachers' certificates before the examining board, will hereafter be required to pay one dollar for an examination.

—Rev. Mr. Badger and son, from Greencastle, Ind., relatives of Mr. E. N. Yates, of our city, were in town on a visit this week.

—John A. Young, General Manager of the Southwestern Coal Company, of Thayer, was in town and paid us a friendly visit Thursday.

—Somebody will have to go to building business houses and dwellings in Iola before long, if the present state of affairs continues. Speed the day.

—Dr. Hendricks has set out a very fine young tree in front of his office on Madison avenue. Other business men might follow suit or "trump."

—Owing to a want of space in this number of the paper, we are compelled to omit the publication of the remainder of the court docket until next week.

—Ab. Downer brought in some new potatoes this week which he claimed as his own raising. We suspect he "raised" them from some granger's potato patch.

—A transparent mulchage of great tenacity, may be made by mixing rice flour with cold water, and letting it gey simmer over the fire.—Scientific American.

—Quarterly meeting will be held at the Methodist Church in Iola, commencing on Tuesday, March 30th, at two o'clock P. M., D. P. Mitchell, Presiding Elder.

—We hear the name of Dr. John W. Scott mentioned in connection with the office of Mayor for the ensuing year. The Doctor would make a first-class Mayor.

—Hardly a mail is received but that we get one or more postal cards requesting sample copies of THE REGISTER. We do not fill such orders. Send postage stamps.

—Remember the railroad meeting next Friday (March 30th) afternoon. It won't do any harm to turn out and hear proposals, and it may result in great benefit to our town and county.

—If any of our subscribers desire a cheap, and yet one of the best papers out, call and examine a specimen copy of the Weekly Witness, New York. It is offered for the balance of 1877, for $1.00.

—Mr. Munger has lately procured a fine horse, which he delights to show to lovers of choice horse flesh. Persons desiring to improve their stock of horses will do well to call and take a look at this superb animal.

—Read the card of W. H. Stevens, attorney at law, in to-day's paper. Mr. Stevens is an attorney of fine ability, is a close student, and your case will be in good hands when you employ him. His office is at Humboldt.

—Rev. J. S. Kline, pastor of the M. E. church at this place for the ensuing year, preached his first sermon here last Sunday. Services at this church will hereafter commence at 10 o'clock A. M. and at seven in the evening.

—Mr. William Davis started on a short trip through the Southern part of the State this week. His wife, whose arrival home from a visit to her relatives in Indiana, we failed to notice a few weeks ago, will remain at Iola.

—Go and see Cowan & Ireland when you come to Iola to trade. They propose to keep full lines of all articles usually found in a first-class grocery store, and their prices can't be beat. If you don't believe, it go and see for yourself.

—Letter, note and bill heads, statements, envelopes, cards, circulars, programmes, pamphlets and all kinds of legal blanks printed at THE REGISTER office at reasonable rates. Don't send your work away when you can get it done at home just as cheap.

—On Monday next Mr. E. N. Yates will start for Chicago, where he will spend the week selecting a large stock of dry goods and notions for his store. He will return with all the latest novelties, and many new styles, just out. Don't buy until you see his stock.

—We thank the publishers of the Topeka Commonwealth for a pamphlet copy of such laws passed by the late Legislature as were published in that paper. It contains most of the acts of general interest, and will be furnished by F. P. Baker & Sons, postpaid, for 50 cts.

—Mrs. Jas. Simpson has just received a fine lot of new millinery which will seriously deplete the men-folk's pockets. Late spring styles and all the little knock-nocks so dear to women's hearts—and so dear to men's purses too—which she will sell very cheap. Ladies will flock to see them sure.

—A novel supper came off in Deer Creek township last Wednesday evening. The folks divided into two squads, for a general rat hunt, and the party which brought in the fewest rat tails paid for the supper. The victorious party, by an "honest count," came out just 131 ahead. A total of 2,269 rats were killed. And so ended the first rat-tail supper that we ever heard of.

—Godey's Magazine for April is at hand. The present number is fully up to its predecessors, and as a lady's magazine can't be beat. If you don't believe, it send for a copy, or better still subscribe for a year. Full fashion gossip is given with each number, and the current one contains the reliable spring fashions. Address E. A. Godey, corner Sixth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

—Here is a paragraph from an exchange which has a double application: The easiest way for a citizen of a place to kill its prosperity is to purchase all his goods abroad, and the easiest way to make people go abroad is to neglect to advertise at home. Persons who don't believe that advertising pays should not complain if people, attracted by the liberal advertising of merchants in other places, go abroad to do their trading.

—A LIBRARY IN ONE VOLUME.—Among the mountains of Virginia, sometime since, the writer of this met a man on horseback, behind him and attached to his saddle, was a large package, which he seemed to guard with peculiar care.

—"You appear to have a great treasure attached to your saddle," we remarked.

—"Yes, sir, I have been over to Richmond and bought myself a library." "An entire library on horseback?" "Yes, sir, I have Webster's Unabridged Dictionary in this package, and it is a whole library in itself. I always get the best!"—Iowa Tribune.

—CORRESPONDENCE WANTED.

—We want a correspondent in every school district in the county. Of course we can't afford to pay much for such correspondence, but if persons in the different neighborhoods around will furnish us the "neighborhood news and gossip," we will make satisfactory remuneration for time and trouble.

—SCHOOL NOTICE.

—There will be a public examination of teachers for Allen County, Kansas, at the school-house in Iola, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M., on Saturday, April 7th, 1877.

—FRANK ROOT, Supt. Public Instruction.

—Iola, March 22, 1877.

—Teachers will take notice that an act approved March 5th, 1877, requires the County Superintendent of Public Instruction to collect a fee of one dollar from each person applying for examination.

—FRANK ROOT.

TO PRINTERS.

Having recently added a new job press to our office, we offer for sale at a bargain our old jobber, size of platen, inside of chase, 10 x 12 inches.

INGERSOLL & PERKINS.

JUST SO.

One of our merchants this week sold a bill of merchandise amounting to $700 to go to Humboldt.—Chautauk Times.

—Messrs. Cowan & Ireland sold a large bill of goods this week to go to Wilson County.

OREGON'S RESOURCES.

All about the land of never-failing crops, and where grasshoppers, chinch-bugs, droughts, or hard winters are unknown—meaning, of course, Oregon. Such of our readers as desire reliable information about that truly wonderful country, will do well to send for a copy of The West, a large sixteen-page, handsomely illustrated paper, giving full information regarding Government and railroad lands, expense of going there, and much other valuable information about the resources of the Pacific Northwest. Sent, postage paid—three months 50 cents; one year, $1.50. All yearly subscribers receive the mammoth January and July editions free of charge. The last January edition was an immense 44-page paper, and contained fifty-six beautiful engravings of buildings and scenery in the Pacific Northwest, got up at an expense of over $3,000. Address all communications to the Publisher—L. Samuel, Portland, Oregon.

W. H. SLAYERS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Humboldt, Kansas. Office with G. W. Hutchinson. No charge in suits if bringing unless I win them.
